Guidelines for Club Rides

NYCC rides are friendly group rides by individuals of similar riding abilities. Our leaders are volunteers. In addition to setting the pace and choosing the route, they may require or recommend specific equipment (helmets, locks, etc.) in their ride descriptions. Unless otherwise stated, rain (snow, sleet) at the starting time cancels the ride. Many rides meet at the Boathouse on Central Park's East Drive, north of 72nd Street.

Please be sure that your bike is in good working condition. Bring a pump, spare tube(s), patch kit, tire irons, water, pocket food, and medical I.D. Optional items include a lock, maps, commuter rail bike permits, additional tools. Helmets are strongly recommended. Headphones are not.

Club rides generally approximate the speeds and characteristics listed below. You can assess your abilities by riding at a comfortable pace, four laps around Central Park. The northern end of the park can be dangerous; ride with other cyclists. Be sure to measure the time it takes you to complete the four laps, and not your average speed. In selecting your first club ride, be conservative; choose an easier ride, and call the leader if you have any questions.

Cliff Notes: The new NYCC logo, which you will soon see on club jerseys, is incorporated in the masthead on this issue thanks to Mike Samuel. The club is more active than ever this summer so this Bulletin has extra pages to fit all the news. Thanks to Eve Markowitz for proofreading help and Loraine Gruber for production assistance on this issue.
RIDES THIS MONTH

WEEKDAY MORNING "B" RIDES. Leader: Jeremy Herman (212-543-6472). I am free most mornings to ride from 9:00 a.m. to 12 noon. You too? Give me a call and we can get a few hours of "B" paced riding in during the week.

PROSPECT PARK EVENINGS. Leader: Alex von Braun (h., 718-965-3552, w., 212-392-7337). From 9th St. and Prospect Park West. Join me for a car-free hour or so while the light lasts. Tuesdays through Thursdays are best. Call.

MILLIONAIRE'S RIDE. Leaders: Marc Leveque (h., 718-461-5480) and Suzanne Rohr (w., 212-758-0900, h., 212-996-1263). From the Boathouse at 8:00 a.m. OR Yellowstone and Queens Blvd. at 8:30 a.m. Wealth and beauty is Eaton's Neck, the Italian Riviera of Long Island. The leaders made an extra effort to find pretty roads. Bring swim suit and sunscreen for we intend to be lazy for about an hour on the beach. Bring at least 2 water bottles and pocket food. Carbo load, please. Rain cancels.

CROTON DAM. Leader: Karl Dittebrandt (212-477-1387). From the Boathouse. We will go up through Westchester by a new route that is yet to be found. Lunch at the Highland Diner in Ossining and a return on Route 9. Rain cancels.

NORTHPORT. Leaders: Steve Antoian (718-651-3807) and Brian McCaffrey (718-634-1742). From the Statue of Civic Virtue. (E or F train to Union Turnpike station). Northport via Snake Hill. Picnic lunch in Northport Marina. Helmets please. If it's raining at 9 a.m., we'll meet at 11:00 a.m. for a shorter ride. If it's still raining at 11:00 a.m., meet on the second floor Clubhouse at Belmont at 1:00 p.m.

PIERMONT PLUS POST-PRINTEMPS PROMENADE. Leader: Sandy Gold (212-222-4076). From the Soldiers and Sailors Monument, Riverside Drive and 91st Street. Check out the stately homes of Grand View on Hudson. Bring or buy lunch. Rain 10:00 a.m./45 mi. cancels.

BIKE TO BAYVILLE FOR BRUNCH ON THE BEACH. Leader: Margaret Cicolla (718-275-6978). From the Boathouse at 8:30 a.m. OR Queens Blvd. and Jewel Avenue at 9:15 a.m. This will be a sloshy, laid-back ride to Bayville. We may spend an hour or so on the beach to help ease our cyclist's tan. Rain cancels.

AROUND THE RESERVOIR. Leader: Jim Babbit (718-296-2027). From Jerome and Woodlawn Aves. (last stop on #4 train). Ride around the Kensico Reservoir and into Connecticut. Moderately hilly with extraordinary scenery. If raining at 9 a.m., try again at 11:30 a.m.

SHOW & GO! Leader(s): You. From the Boathouse. Don't write, don't phone. Just show up at the Boathouse and make something up. If it rains, try again at 11:30 a.m.

CYCLING POSITION CLINIC. Leader: Michael Allison (212-755-3418). At the Boathouse. Sore butt? Numb hands? Can't spin up hills? An efficient and relaxed riding position, along with fitness, is the key to enjoyable cycling. Bring a metal tape measure (metric preferred) and tools to adjust your seat post, saddle, bars, stem, and cleats. Afterwards, join Alex's ride listed below. A/B riders, see July 7.

TAPPAN C+. Leader: Alex von Braun (718-965-3552). From the Boathouse at 11:00 a.m. OR the GWB (179th St. and Ft. Washington Avenue) at 11:45 a.m. Lunch near Old Tappan. Pretty roads, few traffic lights, awesome company. What more 11:00/11:45/55 mi. to ask?? Rain cancels.

OSSINING GRAND PRIX CRITERIUM. Leader: Christy Guzzetta (212-595-3674). From the Boathouse. Pretty ride to Ossining to watch the Ossining Grand Prix Bicycle Race. We'll get there in time to watch the Women's Race, Veteran's Race and pro's race. Bring Metro North pass - we might not ride home. We'll make arrangements for a casual dinner get-together upon our return to Manhattan. Then we'll enjoy some NYC July 4th Happy Birthday America fireworks. What a day. RAIN DATE: July 4, 1991

LEADERLESS C+. Coordinator: Alex von Braun (718-965-3552). From the Boathouse. Call for ideas on a mid-week escapade.

LIBERTY STATE PARK, N.J. Leader: John Mulcare (718-672-5272). From the Coliseum (S.W. corner of 60th St. and B'dwy) at 9:30 a.m. OR the Staten Island Ferry (Manhattan side, street level) at 10:20 a.m. Be sure to stop at the auto toll booth and purchase a ticket (it may cost more than last year). Carry lunch or buy it at a deli we stop at on the way. Call John before 8:30 a.m. if the weather is questionable. RAIN DATE: Saturday, July 7.

600 kmQualifier for B-M-B '90 and P-B-P'91. Contact: Jeff Vogel (w., 212-285-2500, h., 718-275-6978). From AYH, Amsterdam and 103rd St. This ride was the unofficial ride of the year last year because of the scenic beauty and the monster climbs. Bring low gears (or sneakers to walk up the mountains.) Baggage drop, overnight accommodations and some food supplied. approx. cost is $40. A non-refundable deposit of $20 is required by June 15. There will be a shorter option of 135 miles on each day for those who would only like to climb some of this course. Call early, space is limited. Nothing cancels.

CYCLING POSITION CLINIC. Leader: Michael Allison (212-755-3418). At the Boathouse. Sore butt? Numb hands? Can't spin up hills? An efficient and relaxed riding position, along with fitness, is the key to enjoyable cycling. Bring a metal tape measure (metric preferred) and tools to adjust your seat post, saddle, bars, stem, and cleats. If time permits after we are finished, consider a quick ride to Piermont/Nyack to road test your new positioning.

AHHH VALNHALLA. Leader: Jody Sayler (212-799-8293). From the Boathouse. One of my favorite rides to Ah, Valhalla. Picnic lunch at Kensico Dam Gardens. Return via Route 9. 9:00 a.m./70 mi.

HALF DAY RIDE. Leader: Bill Richards (212-675-1946). From the Staten Island Ferry Terminal. Plan to catch the 7:30 a.m. Ferry. One 34 mile lap of Staten Island before the locals stir. We will need to musette bag food for a short distance to the Conference House where we will enjoy the view of Perth Ambrey. (46 mile round trip from the Boathouse).
West Egg. Fitzgerald seems to have had in mind a very specific area of Great Neck and Little Neck. We'll spend the day gawking at super-expensive estates there, in Sands Point, and on out to Mill Neck near Oyster Bay. I'll leave my contempt for excessive wealth and privilege in my saddle bag for the day. Since I won't have researched this ride one bit, your help is needed. Bring a swimsuit as we'll be on the Sound.

Sat. July 7  C RIDE TO THE SEA. Leader: Christy Guzzetta (212-595-3674). From the Staten Island Ferry. Dat's an island? Schmoozy ride out to the forgotten borough. Highlights include: Richmonddown Restoration, picnic lunch by Conference House Park, some hills, and other joys. Not to forget about the forgotten borough.

Sun. July 8  SWEET, SHORT, FAST SUNDAY SPIN (SSSSST). Leader: Doug Blackburn (h., 212-563-7067, w., 201-839-4244). From the Boathouse. It won't be Nyack. It will be 25+ miles out, a deli stop and 25+ miles back via a different route, all in North Jersey.
The objective, in addition to exercise, and social intercourse, is to be back in NYC no later than 1 p.m. Rain, wet roads cancels.

Boathouse. Come join us for a fun ride through Long Island. We'll try to keep the route as flat as possible. Bring your 9:00 a.m./80+/-. mi.
imometer to keep us honest.

Sun. July 8  PIERMONT POOL-AND-SNOOZE. Leader: Peter Hochstein (212-427-1041). From the Boathouse at 9:30 a.m. OR the GWB (NY side) at 10:15 a.m. Ride with 3 objectives: 1) Take a swim. 2) Take a nap. 3) Take it easy going home. Outbound may be via a hilly River Road and the Tallman Bicycle Path, or maybe not (leader's whim). Slow return via the least-hilly route.
Snooze 'n schmooze poolside, leave 3:30-ish as the day cools down. Bring a lock, towel and bathing suit. Buy or schlepp lunch. Rain cancels.

Sat. July 14  THE FRENCH CONNECTION. Citizen: Philippe Chateau (212-547-4052) et citizen Marc Leveque (718-461-5480). From the Boathouse at 8:30 a.m. OR Yellowstone and Queens Blvd. at 9:00 a.m. OR Old Roslyn gas station at 9:40 a.m. The first anual cycling classic, celebrating the Bastille Day. This year, we will tour Long Island's shore to Caussett Park where we will meet the A-infanterie. The tempo will be tres vite but it is not one course. Bring your musette to carry your lunch for five miles. (We also recommend that you bring two water bottles and some pocket food.) It is not required to speak French or to be French, but you should think French for a day. All kinds of decorations allowed for this ride (flags, berets, etc.) So heads up! Baguette load et bonne chance..... Rain cancels or one year after the Bicentenial of the french revolution....

Sat. July 14  A DIFFERENT DEATH RIDE. Leader: Genghis Ron (212-595-4563). From the Boathouse. Not going to Markleville in the High Sierras or storming the Bastille, why not kill yourself closer to home. Continuing where last month's "Pulp Reducer" left off, a further exploration of Orange County. 9W to Newburgh, breakfast followed by a new menu of appetizing county roads. We finish across the Bear Mt. Bridge and take Metro North back. Bring train pass. RAIN DATE: Sunday, July 15.

Shore sojourn for a viewing of a private aviary of rare and exotic birds (no kestrels, however). Bring cameras and a musette 8:00 a.m./80+/-. mi. bag for a picnic lunch at the aviary. Limited to the first 10 people to call. Rain cancels.

Sat. July 14  PICNIC AT THE POINT. Leaders: Caryl and Steve Baron (212-595-7010). From the Boathouse. We'll ride to Stony Point by a typically devious route, and picnic at historic (and scenic) Stony Point Battlefield, a short detour off 9W. With any luck there will be fresh raspberries for dessert. July is hot, so carry lots of water, pocket food, a musette bag in which to carry your lunch, and a plastic bag for berries. Rain or strong chance cancels. RAIN DATE: Sunday, July 15.

Sat. July 14  THE FRENCH CONNECTION II. Leaders: Gail Birnbaum (212-996-2042) and Peter Morales (h., 718-833-4370, w., 212-949-4790). From the Boathouse at 8:30 sharp OR Queens Blvd. and Yellowstone Park at 9:20 a.m. (E, F, R or G train). L.I.
riders phone for a third start location. Celebrate Bastille Day with Marc Leveque and Philippe Chateau in a more leisurely version of their above ride. Same destination - Caussett Park and same procedure: carry water and be prepared to carry lunch. Special applause for tricolor decorations! Vive la France!

Sat. July 14  PICNIC SPECIAL. Leader: Alex von Braun (718-985-3552). From the Boathouse at 10:00 a.m. OR 179th St. and Ft. Washington
C/C at 10:45 a.m. Enjoy a shady picnic near a stream after a friendly jaunt thru the 'burbs. Rain cancels.
10:00/10:45 a.m./45-55 mi.

Sun. July 15  RIDE A BIKE TO PARADISE, FAST. Leaders: Alan Loener (718-797-0972) and Lance Loener (212-947-9392). From the Boathouse. Let's go fast to Westchester - in a pelclone, eat lunch fast, one or two fast breaks. Come home fast - you know a 8:30 a.m./90-110 mi. fast ride!! Rain cancels.

Sun. July 15  SUNDAY QUICKIE. Leader: Mike Yesko (212-475-4007). From the Boathouse. If you can't get away for a full day of play 7:00 a.m. because of family or business commitments, join me. 40-60 miles with one quick stop. Bergen/Rockland destination probable, group consensus will be entertained. No need to call; if I don't show, at least take some laps of the Park and don't hold a grudge.

Sun. July 15  BAYVILLE. Leaders: Joe Izrarry (718-230-0756) and Lorena Gruber (212-989-5915). From the Boathouse at 9:00 a.m. OR 9:45 a.m. from Queens Boulevard and Jewel Avenue. We'll climb through Roslyn Heights and Sea Cliff before hitting 9:00/9:45 am/70+/-. mi. Bayville for lunch. Rain cancels.

9:30 a.m./55 mi. at a good "B+" pace for a dip in the pool and a chance to laugh at everybody's tan lines. Bring your suit, a lock (any type will 9:30 a.m./55 mi. do) and a towel. Rain at start cancels.

Sun. July 15  SWIM AT MANHATTAN BEACH. Leader: Ken Weissman (212-222-5557). From the Boathouse. Down the West Side, past the 4:45 a.m. new Battery Park Marina to Zaro's Seaport for breakfast, then along the Brooklyn waterfront to pick up lunch at a Sheepshead
45-50 mi. Bay deli. Lunch and a one hour swim, then back via a unique, NO HILLS route. Locks and helmets mandatory. Full-Blown Monsoon Rain cancels.
CATSKILL CLIMBING PART II. Leaders: Karl Dittebrandt (212-477-1387) and Jeff Vogel (w., 212-265-2500, h., 718-275-6978). From the Boathouse at 5:00 a.m. OR 7:50 a.m. from Grand Central Station. We'll probably do a lot of climbing today since we didn't scout the route. Karl will start from the Boathouse. Jeff will catch the 7:55 a.m. train to Beacon from Grand Central to join Karl's group for the remaining 100 miles. We'll all take the train back so Metro-North passes are mandatory. Rain cancels.

PEPSICO PICNIC. Leader: Herb Dershowitz (212-929-0787). From the Boathouse. Ride to the beautiful corporate headquarters in Purchase, N.Y. Picnic lunch.
9:00 a.m./65 mi.

WESTCHESTER. Leaders: Jeremy Herman (212-543-6472) and Mark Gelles (212-360-4382). From 242nd St. and 3rd Ave. (last stop on #1 and #9 trains). Ride through varied and beautiful terrain (estates, farms, Hudson River and New Jersey Palisades views). Good medium time and length work-out with 30 challenging miles before lunch (some tough hills). Then an easy, flat, social ride back. Call between 8:00-9:00 a.m. if weather is in question.
10:00 a.m./45 mi.

VALHALLA, OR BEST RIDE BY A DAM SITE. Leader: Sandy Gold (212-222-4076). From the Boathouse at 10:00 a.m. OR C+ B Woodlawn Ave. (last stop on #4 subway) at 11:00 a.m. Bronx River Parkway to scenic Kensico Dam and Valhalla. Rain cancels.
10:00/11:00/40-60 mi.

EISENHOWER PARK, NASSAU COUNTY. Leader: John Mulcare (718-672-5272). From the Burger King parking lot at 179th C/C St. and Hillside Ave., Queens (last stop on F train). Carry your lunch or buy it at a deli stop on the way. Our gung-ho riders will be permitted to ride as fast as is safe on a long stretch of the L.I.E. service road, provided they wait for the rest of us at Post Road (or Ave.) on the right. Rain cancels. Call John before 8:30 a.m. if the weather is questionable. RAIN DATE: Sun, 7/22.
9:30 a.m./37 mi.

ALL-CLASS CLUB RIDE TO BETHPAGE STATE PARK. Join old and new friends for our second all-class ride of the season.
July 22 Ride with one of the groups listed below, or meet us at Bethpage State Park at 1 p.m. for lunch. We'll be in the main picnic area, near the parking lot and restrooms.

A+ Leader: Jeff Vogel (w., 212-265-2500, h., 718-275-6978). From the Boathouse. We're going fast. Cooperative riding will be appreciated, but if you jump off the front, we'll chase you down.
8:00 a.m./80+/- mi.

A Hung Hags do Bethpage. Leaders: Amy Sackman (212-645-2949); Lisa Halle (212-319-6097) and Donna Slattery (718-680-0664). From the Boathouse. Hang with the hags as we cover new ground (or get lost) in Long Island. We promise to find the prettiest and most grable of all routes, passing both kiang and muskeg in their natural environment. "A+" riders un-welcome - go with Jeff! A 'lucky' Saturday night would be a great reason to cancel.
8:00 a.m./75+/- mi.

A- Leaders: Margaret Cipolla (718-275-6978) and Mark Martinez (718-726-7644). From the Boathouse at 8:30 a.m. OR Queens Blvd. and Yellowstone Blvd. at 9:15 a.m. This will be a very reasonably-paced ride. We'll meet the other riders for the group picnic at 1:00 p.m.
8:30/9:15 a.m./70+/- mi.

B+ Leader: Jim Babbitt (718-298-2027). From 179th St. and Hillside Ave. (last stop on "F" train).
9:00 a.m./60+/- mi.

B Leader: Dick Goldberg (212-874-2008). From 179th St. and Hillside Ave. (last stop on "F" train).
9:00 a.m./60+/- mi.

B- Leader: Maggie Clarke (212-567-8272). From the Statue of Civic Virtue (E/F train to Union Turnpike stop).
8:15 a.m./50+/- mi.

C/C+ Leader: Alex von Braun (718-965-3552). From 179th St. and Hillside Ave. (last stop on "F" train).
10:30 a.m./45-50 mi.

DELTA WATER GAP. Leader: Maxim Vickers (718-728-7179). The 12th annual Delaware Water Gap Tour. 270 breathtaking miles of NY, NJ and PA is scheduled for July 28-29 in order to give the randonneurs some rest after their 600 km trial. Beautiful scenery, great food, awesome riding. Those interested should contact the leader.
July 28-29 270 mi.

DINGMAN'S FALLS. Leaders: Joe Furman (201-692-8306) and Loraine Gruber (212-969-5915). From Hainesville, N.J. at 10:00 a.m. OR 9:00 a.m. at a diner breakfast en route. If you can find Hainesville on the map, you're halfway there! Picture perfect scenery with lunch at the falls. Enjoy a day of low density traffic and abundant wildlife. Bring swimming gear for an optional swim in the lake after (or instead of) the ride in Stokes State Forest. RAIN DATE: Sunday, July 29.
7:30 a.m./55+/- mi.

BEDFORD VILLAGE - ARMONK HILL CLIMBER. Leader: Marty Wolf (212-935-1460). From the Boathouse. We'll leave at 8:15 a.m. for a relatively fast-paced ride to Bedford Village and Armonk. The food stop is in Armonk, at roughly the 57 mile mark, so bring pocket food. This is a hilly but pretty ride, so be prepared for a workout. Very high temps. may shorten the ride. Any precipitation cancels.
8:15 a.m./100 mi.

PRINCETON BY THE BOOK-BY BUS. Leaders: Dick Goldberg (212-874-2008) and Judy Goldberg (212-873-4104). From Princeton, N.J. at 9:30 a.m. (or whenever the bus arrives). Another variant of the Princeton-New Hope-Washington's Crossing circuit: horses, history, hills and a tow-path. Take Suburban Transit Bus (8 a.m., Port Authority, upper level, Gate 420, $12.70 round trip) or drive. This will be a leisurely ride with a wade-in-the-water option. 50% chance of rain at 7 a.m. cancels.
9:30 a.m./55 mi.

TALLMAN (FREE) PARKING. Leader: Alex von Braun (718-965-3552). From the Boathouse at 10:00 a.m. OR 179th St. and Ft. Washington Avenue at 10:45. Wander north to shady Tallman. Pool plunge possible. Helmets required. Rain cancels.
10:00/10:45/45-50 mi.
Sun. July 29  SUNDAY QUICKIE. Leader: Mike Yecko (212-475-4007). From the Boathouse. If you can't get away for a full day of play because of family or business commitments, join me. 40-60 miles with one quick stop. Bergen/Rockland destination probable, group consensus will be entertained. No need to call; if I don't show, at least take some laps of the Park and don't hold a grudge.

Sun. July 29  CROSS STATE LINES (4 TIMES). Leaders: Mark Gelles (212-260-4382) and Jeremy Herman (212-543-6472). From 178th & Ft. Washington Ave. GWE Bus Terminal ("A" train to 175th St. stop) at 9:45 a.m. OR 10:00 a.m. on the Jersey side of the GWE by stairs (parking 4 cars). Spun through Jersey Burbs, ride in a forest on Tallman bike path, then follow Hudson north for picnic lunch on river in Upper Nyack, climb and cruise home via 9W. Bring something to carry back to the Boathouse. Call Ed or on before July 25 so he can order food. Usual cancels.

Sun. July 29  ARMONK/KENSICO LOOP. Leader: Maggie Clarke (212-567-8272). From Dyckman Triangle Garden, 200th St. stop on B. 9:15 a.m. 60 mi.

Sun. July 29  JULY JERSEY JAUNT. Leaders: Dorothy Fong (718-596-5776) and Alex von Braun (718-965-3552). From 179th St. and Ft. Washington Ave. Cultivate the Garden State of mind. Exact destination TBA. Deli lunch; helmets required. Serious rain 10:30 a.m./Approx. 45 mi. cancels.

Sat. Aug. 4  PICNIC IN BEDFORD. Leader: Christy Guzzetta (212-595-3674). From the Boathouse. One of the more beautiful rides around. 42 miles non-stop, over Whippoorwill Road, to picnic at the bustling town square in Bedford. Cruise down North Street in your big chain ring. By now, I'm tired, so it will be easy going the rest of the way home.

Sat. Aug. 4  TAN WITHOUT GUILT. Leader: Curt Wassnagen (718-843-5845). From the Burger King at 179th St. and Hillsdale Ave. in Queens. The ride to get Dick Goldberg off my back! To Jones Beach - a fast-paced mostly flat ride (I want to swim). Those wishing to also, bring bike lock and swimwear! Those wishing to take LIRR back, bring pass. Rain or conditions non-conducive to a great tan cancels.

Sun. Aug. 5  JACK BENNY ETERNALLY "39" RIDE. Leader: Dan Schwartzman (w., 212-206-6101, h., 212-362-5493). From the Boathouse. 39 miles up to the prettiest (and hilliest) parts of Greenwich, Stamford, and New Canaan in search of Jack's 1939 country bachelor hideaway and the fountain of (pre-40) youth (we may have to settle for Gatorade at a deli). 39 mile lunch to NYC through more bucolic Benny-land, feeling eternally 39, and not a year older. Rochester, oh Rochester, bring me the Ben-Gay!

Sun. Aug. 5  BEDFORD VILLAGE. Leader: Maggie Clarke (212-567-8272). From Dyckman Triangle Garden (200th St. stop on "A" train). 8:30 a.m./70+ mi. Another lovely ride through the landscaped Westchester burbs and Greenwich estates to the Bedford Village green for lunch. Bring a Metro-North pass for emergencies. Extreme heat shortens the ride. 70% chance of rain cancels.

Previews

Aug. 31-Sept. 3  Shelter Island Labor Day Weekend. Leaders: Debbie Bell (212-664-5153) and Jody Sayler (212-799-8239). Make your reservations now for the NYCC traditional holiday weekend on Shelter Island, nestled between Montauk and Orient Points at the end of Long Island. Shelter Island can be reached by bus, bike, train or car, and offers varied biking for all riding levels. This year we're staying at the Piddwin on Crescent Beach. The Piddwin has a pool, tennis courts, TV and A/C in the rooms, and other attractions. Rates for double-occupancy hotel room (Fri.-Sun.), breakfast and dinner daily are $270-$297 per person plus taxes and gratuities. Some cottages are also available. Call the Piddwin (616-749-0470) to reserve. Call Debbie or Jody if you have questions or need a roommate. And let them know when you have made a reservation so that you'll be on the list for schedule information and bike routes.

Sun. Sept. 9  1990 Hudson Valley Century. Sponsored by: Mid-Hudson Bicycle Club, From: LaGrange, NY, Mileage: 25-125 miles. Bike through the rolling terrain of rural Dutchess County. Sag support and food provided. Cost is $7 before September 1 includes a water bottle. For more information, contact: Erna Wilcox, 12 Hudson Drive, Hyde Park, NY 12538.

Sept. 6-13  Germany. Leaders: Steve and Caryl Baron (212-595-7010). 8 days, 7 nights, 6 breweries, 5 rivers, 4 churches, 3 wineries, 2 lakes, and a trout. Ride with Baron and Baron from the Frankfurt Airport, following the Main, the Tauber, the Wornitz, the Atmuhl and the Danube to Salzburg or Munich. Not more than one serious mountain, but lots of rolling hills. We'll ride on secondary roads and bike paths. 50-75 miles/day at a touristy "A" pace; you can be off the front or rear. Call now -- space is limited.

Progressive "B" Update

It was a cold day in February when Irv Weisman and his twenty soon-to-be skilled bicyclists gathered indoors for the first session of the B Progressive Ride series. Our professor arrived with cartons of Effective Cycling texts which were handed out, not to mention a homework assignment which consisted of four chapters. A question and answer period was followed by a lecture on gearing, safety, ratios, sprockets, cogs, proper attire and food. Finally, a break—oatmeal cookies, hot apple cider and gorp—but when do we ride?

It's now twelve weeks later. Some of us have made changes to our freewheels, chain rings, a few of us even got new bikes. We have put in the miles, are riding in straight lines, shifting properly, using hand and verbal signals and getting over our "hill anxiety."

We think Irv is pleased with our progress and we want to thank him for his valuable time, patience, knowledge and perseverance. Who knows, maybe he'll recruit one or two animals.

—Marilyn Merlob

Accidents Will Happen

Bicycling accidents and how to avoid them is the program topic planned for the August club meeting. If you have had a bicycling accident, please call Irv Weisman to share your experiences.

A digit was dropped from Irv's phone numbers in the June Bulletin. You can reach him at 212/241-7483 (day), or 212/562-7298 (eve).

On behalf of all the members of the New York Cycle Club, thank you rider leaders for all that you do. In June there were approximately 45 rides listed in our Bulletin. 45! There were weekend rides, overnight rides, car-tops, and lots and lots of day rides. Each one of these were planned and routed and led by one of our club's hero ride leaders. Thank you so very much.

These are the people who make this club happen. These are the volunteers who deserve so much of the credit for making the club great. They volunteer—they do not have to do this stuff. And what do you think happens? In July there are 55 rides ready to go. Amazing. Hip, hip hooray for the ride leaders—thank you so very much.

This alternative may also be taken westward except (A) one turns left directly onto Grand Central Parkway from Union Turnpike (no Springfield Blvd) and (B) Avon connects directly to Grand Central Parkway (no Kent and Midland Parkway). This route may be longer but winding through Cunningham Park as it does, it avoids the worst part of Union Turnpike, using only the section that is newly paved. In fact, 8 of 18 streets have new pavement. There are also fewer buses on this route and almost constant shade. Besides, when returning to the city on any weekend afternoon, there is almost always an ice cream truck waiting beside the soccer fields on 73rd Avenue.
The SIG Progressive "A" Ride Series - Final Standings
by Lance Leener

The 1990 version of the SIG embraced additional leadership, a little more attention to skill and technique, and a condensed schedule. What remained exactly the same as previous years was the spirit, the dedication, and the fun which Christy established back in 1987.

This year's series consisted of twelve consecutive rides, each one just a bit more challenging than the one before. It all kicked off on March 3rd. It was dreary and damp but 45 less-than-fit enthusiasts showed up at the boathouse eager to conquer the four loops. Some bicycles had kickstands, others were garnished with reflectors. One even had a funky little creature affixed to the rear brake. It was one motley crew, to say the least. Could these people really be transformed into "A" riders?

Our first objective was to build a base of miles. Most of the early rides were to New Jersey and Long Island. All in all, we amassed over 850 miles. In the process we learned, and then refined, such skills as single and double paceline and better bike handling. In the last third of the series, we focused on developing our climbing prowess. This took us to Westchester, where our mileage soared to the 80-95 mile range and where rides really became fast and beautiful.

As in previous years, the SIG participants were totally focused and committed. Clif, Margaret and Kathy were troopers and Carl and Mark added spirit to every ride. Big, tall Bernie Long widened his skills. Gale divorced that klunky kickstand and Ernie, despite his propensity to pavement, improved considerably. Neil, Jim, and Al were animals and became almost Lemond-like. Frank hammered on all 12 rides and Ann, with her newfound strength, blasted through her rear derailleur. C.J. shed 15 pounds in preparation for the climbs and Fred found his rhythm in the hills on the Croton Dam ride. The Johns were always near the front and so was Gary.

Sure some got dropped but desire prevailed and 18 confident, fit cyclists met at 4:15 a.m. to chew up the roads in perfectly paced synchronicity for the 130 mile graduation ride to Montauk on May 20th. With minimal sleep and nerve ends twitching, the SIG participants were more than anxious to roll. The pace was fast and furious and after a few dropped water bottles and a little bit of paceline bump and grind, we settled into a smooth rotating groove.

The ride was one of the most difficult in the recent past. A strong head wind and brisk temperatures were our constant nemesis. Everyone rode strong, however, and we became the first NYCC members to cruise into Montauk. On the final approach, the SIG participants, all proud and smiling, rode the front of the pack for the final conclusive pull.

On a personal note, it was great fun being a part of these past 12 weeks. Seeing everyone progress and take on a new-found passion for cycling was a thrill. Special thanks to Jeff Vogel, our "A" rides coordinator, who succumbed to mandatory helmet requirements and who helped pull the group along. It was especially nice doing it the co-leaders: Christy, Bob, Lisa, and my old man.

Montauk 1990
The Leaders of the Pack
by Christy Guzzetta

This ride did not start off as my "ride of the year." The first bad thing that happened was at 3:30 a.m. At that very moment, my alarm clock went off. That in itself was enough to put me in a grumpy mood. Then, about 26 miles later, I crash. My once grumpy mood turned outright foul. Eight miles after that, my bejewelled, hand-polished, beautiful Italian derailleur jams into my bejeweled, hand-polished, beautiful Italian BRAND NEW wheel—wrecking both! For the next 40 minutes, I twist, bend, curse, and pray in an attempt to make my bike once again rideable. With all the bad luck I was having, I should have known I'd succeed.

For the next 45 miles, I ride alone into a freak head wind in an attempt to catch up to the SIG group. Right around Patchogue, there they are. For almost all of the remaining 70 miles, I remained one mean, angry, awful human being.

Something happened just before we got to Montauk. I remembered...That person riding next to me had a heck of a time making three slow laps of Central Park on the first SIG ride of the series. And here it is, 1 p.m., and we're only inches from Montauk. Back in April, that lady over there got dropped on a hill in Westchester. And here she is today, right in the middle of the very first group to get to Montauk.

All these people. Me. How did we make it from Central Park back in March all the way to Montauk in May—and get there before any other bike on the road that day? How?!

Four reasons. Count 'em.

Lisa Hallo was reason #1. She took part in last year's SIG. I remember her coming out for the very first ride wearing sneakers, jogging shorts, and riding a 45-pound cast-iron bike. In one year's time, she has learned so much about "A" riding. About equipment, technique, training. Now, I'm flattered just to once in a while keep up with her.

Reason #2: Alan Leener. I never even try to keep up with him. He spins, he jibes, he moves, very—VERY fast. Every single ride, Alan pushed us to new heights, a little bit faster each and every week.

Bob Moulder, reason #3. Mr. "No Tech" himself. Bob is a student of the sport, maybe even a scientist. Quietly, he set an example of how to ride, providing as steady a wheel as exists. To ride with Bob means only one thing—that you can really ride.

And finally, Lance Leener. What can I say about Lance? He was reason #4. And #3, and #1, and #2. He organized the series, he took responsibility for it, he more than anyone else made it happen. He whipped us into shape, he demanded we do the right thing. It was him—more than any other reason—that got us to Montauk. What can I say about Lance? Nothing except that he's the best there is!

The four reasons, the four leaders, not one of them missed a single ride. The series was set up so that the leaders could miss a ride or two from time to time. They just didn't. They made Montauk great. In fact, it was because of them, Montauk 1990 became my "ride of the year." On behalf of the fourth SIG, Progressive "A" ride Series, thank you Lisa, Alan, Bob—and especially you, Lance—for making it happen.

Quick Releases
by Janet Kronstadt

Montauk was brutal this year by most accounts: A fierce head wind (which was a tail wind for Alex Bekkerman, Don Ketteler and Jim Greene, returning at 30 MPH on their Montauk Double Century) was the cause. Despite it, the SIG riders "graduated" during Montauk: those new, POLISHED, regimented people you have noticed dominating A-rides of late.

Montauk was also the first (200K) qualification "brevet" for BMI-1990 and PB-1991. The second brevet (300K) wound up being closer to 225 miles, just like last year, due to confusing and ambiguous and INCORRECT directions. Depart 2:30 a.m., return by 11 p.m. A brutalizing, ahem, CHALLENGING time was had by all.

Alex Bekkerman won the 24-hour race, June 2, at Johnstown with an astonishing 463.4 miles. Jim Greene, Margaret Cipolla (well-representing the Vogel/Cipolla team—Jeff was here support crew this year), Karl Dittrich and other NYCC members put impressive mileage counts—and that includes Marty Wolf who bested many men with a 306-mile total. Marty also claims it was fun—"It felt like doing a club ride. I just smiled the whole way."

Caryl Baron, of the new formed Baron and Baron entity, led a particularly enjoyed and well-attended assault of Bear Mountain early last month. And Memorial Day weekend in Sheffield, was well-coordinated, well-ridden, and well-appreciated, by all accounts.

At the June membership meeting, dominated by bike shop owners who gave an excellent presentation of what it's like to own/operate a bike shop like Toga or Habitat, four attractive women, clearly newcomers, sat at a far table by themselves. When, having forced them to introduce themselves, Christy asked one of she planned to attend the Nude Beach Ride, she replied, "That depends on how well you perform tonight." It was the first time Christy was ever seen to blush during a routine Nude Beach hustle.

Paul Mort, who planned to do the BMI and PBP brevets, hasn't, mainly due to the fact that he and Susanne are expecting their first child in late August. The Morts have a significant lead on NYCC members Cynthia Allison and Bob Fiore, who just became merely...ENGAGED. (Bob and Cynthia met on bicycles, unsurprisingly.)

Dry Cleaning for Bicycles

If you hate washing your apartment's bathroom every time you clean your bike, a used pair of pantyhose can provide a good interim touch-up. Position your bike on a few sheets of newspaper or a floor that can be easily swept, and wipe dirt off with dry nylon hose. Nylon is strong, and the hose can easily be wrapped around tubes, cranks, hubs, and even between freewheels. The dirt will collect on the floor or newspaper and can easily be disposed of. It's a good quick cleaning for city bikes between rainstorms.

THE 3 BIGGEST LIES IN CYCLING

"WE'LL TRY TO KEEP A REASONABLE PACE"

"THERE'S ALWAYS A TAIL WIND TO MONTAUK"

"I NEVER READ THE BULLETIN"
A Tale From Down Under
by Loraine Gruber

Walked into the Ascot Parnell Bed & Breakfast in Auckland and was greeted by a charming Irishwoman named Heidi. "I've got a room, a bike and a man for you," she said with a twinkle in her eye and so began my bicycle adventure in New Zealand.

Well, both the room and bike were great, but on the short trek in the pouring rain from the ferry terminal to the Picton Hostel, the "man" and I decided we just weren't going to get along riding together and opted to go our separate ways. Had flown from Auckland to Wellington and took the ferry over to Picton. In NZ you can bring your bikes everywhere—on planes, trains and buses—without a problem. Just remove the pedals, turn the handle bars, wrap your chain in newspaper and wheel it through the baggage check in—you don't even need to put it in a box. I've heard they take better care of your bike if it's unboxed, than if it is.

Woke up the next morning to a beautiful sunny day—perfect weather for cycling—packed up my gear and set out. The first few kilometers out of Picton were tough—lots of uphills. The views along Queen Charlotte Drive winding along the Sound were spectacular, though riding on the left side of the road did take some getting used to. The road came away from the sea and flattened out, passing farms with lots of sheep. (There are 3.3 million people in NZ and about 70 million sheep—although they're not quite sure of that number because sheep don't fill out the census reports!) Passed a sign, in the middle of nowhere, reading "Cyclists!"

Heading back into the hills, I met up with a funky day-glo looking Kiwi mountain biker named Max, and we decided to ride together to Nelson. Riding out of Havelock—a picnic lunch of peanut butter, jelly and bananas—the road flattened out once again. Stopped at the Pelorus Bridge, took a trail through the woods over a swinging bridge and ended up taking a dip in the freezing cold river. It was a blast!

After Rai Valley—where we energized with cokes—there is no sign of civilization until Nelson, 48k away with two saddle bags to go over. The first, just outside of Rai Valley, was very, very steep for about 3km. Arrived at the top hot and sweaty (that granny gear sure came in handy), and went screaming down the other side, as it started getting darker and darker (it was fall in NZ and the sun sets around 5 p.m.). Huge logging trucks were zooming past; one came too close and ran me off the road—it was all I could do to hang on and not spill over.

As the dusk gathered, there we were, two crazy bikers, starting up Whanganua Saddle. Stopped for a vegemite snack, put on our reflective wear—Max fastened his rock climbing light on his head—and began the 12km ascent. It wasn't as tough or steep as Rai, but I was getting tired—guess that swim in the cold river didn't help my muscles. It was a struggle, exciting but nerve-wracking at the same time. We tried to hitch, but these huge trucks just kept barrelling past us.

After what seemed like an eternity we reached the summit and were off on the 8km descent—steep, with lots of switchbacks. Glow worms were glittering in the pitch dark on the side of the road. Max went first; It was reassuring to see that small flicker of light on his head and have an idea which way the road was turning. It grew incredibly cold—my hands were frozen and they were stiff from squeezing my brakes so hard.

Finally, the road flattened out and we saw the lights of Nelson. We pulled into the Pavlova Backpackers at 9pm and got bunks, had soy bean pasta for dinner and went off to Chez Belko—a neat café with huge cockroach sculptures on the wall. A celebration was in progress; No, not for us making it to Nelson, but for Belko—a very bizarre looking Dutchman with wavy white hair in every direction—who had been decorated by the Queen that day. We joined him in a champagne toast as he proudly wore his medal on his chest, secretly toasting ourselves as well!

The rest of my ride down the West Coast was magnificent! It was quite hilly, but even a couple days of torrential rain didn't dampen my spirits—my rain gear held up and I pedaled on. Riding along the Buller River and Gorge to Westport was superb. The ride down the coast of the Westlands was quite scenic—the mountains and rain forest with its varied vegetation to my left and the sea on my right. The Pancake Rocks and blowholes at Punakaki were spectacular, the colorful sunset at Hokitika incredible. Saw a perfect reflection of Mts. Cook and Tasman in Lake Matheson and hiked on Fox Glacier.

The friendliness of the Kiwis made my trip all the more special. There are some I'll never forget: The 70-year old farmer named Ray Quinny smelling terribly of cow manure, with his false teeth that never stopped moving around, who "had to give me a ride over a metal [gravel] road" because he "just couldn't get it out of his mind a sweet thing like [me] riding over it" and threw my bike, gear and all, in the back of his station wagon; The family that had driven by me struggling up a mountain and offered to "pop my gear in the boot [trunk]"; Gavin, the racer from Christchurch, who kept a pretty good pace all the way into Murchinson, and washed my clothes out for me in this old fashioned machine (I did cook pasta for him in return!); The Westport bike shop owner who opened up his shop on a Sunday to sell me some tubes; Of course, Max; and all the farmers and drivers who took the time to wave (eventually I realized shaking their heads back and forth in no fashion was their way of saying
Berkshires Getaway
by Lance Leener

Memorial Day weekend greeted us with a new concept: warm temperatures and sunshine! Yes, tights were finally shed for the first time this season exposing shaved legs and sculpted muscles. It was a wonderful welcome to an exhilarating weekend for those NYCC members who were anxious to escape city madness for a weekend getaway in Sheffield, Massachusetts.

Set in the lush farmlands and mighty hills of the Berkshires, the group of 50 were treated to top notch hospitality of the Bed & Breakfast variety. Led by always effervescent Karen Reich, we were perfectly organized and prepared for challenging and picturesque pedal-pushing.

What may end up being the highlight of the year, a group of nine left early Friday morning for a 110-mile trek from White Plains to Sheffield. The ride contained stunning beauty and steady climbs past rivers and lakes. Working together, the group arrived smiling, having made excellent time. Cold beers and sodas were raised to toast the day's pleasures.

At Sheffield, all levels were represented with an assortment of A, B, and C rides.

Distances ranged from 20 to 70 miles, and each ride had hills to conquer. Memorable was the ride led by Joe Furman who marched his A-team up and around back roads and dirt trails—forcing Lisa Halls to conduct an Italian bicycle cleaning seminar at ride's end. Debbie Furman followed her husband's "lead" shepherding her C+ to B+ flock along a similar route at a little more leisurely pace.

The infamous Bash Bish Falls ride on Sunday had everyone talking. It's the ride with the long, steep and treacherous climb. Christy Guarzetta pulled the paceline to the mountain but shortly thereafter it became every small chainring for himself. Everyone powered up the steep, winding road and gathered at the top for a relaxing rest alongside the magnificent waterfall. The group then double pacelined together through 20 miles of some of the most beautiful country in the east, finally breaking up into a few groups for the remaining push home.

Sunday evening we celebrated together at the Blackberry River Inn where we presented Karen with a token of our appreciation for organizing the weekend. Then the 50 of us proceeded to devour record amounts of food at the buffet-style dinner. Having completely underestimated the consumption capacity of hungry cyclists, the management of the Inn is still said to be recovering from the shock.

On Monday, some of us shopped for antiques, some went for short rides, and others rode back to Poughkeepsie where they caught the train back to New York. Still others watched the eagerly awaited annual Sheffield Memorial Day Parade—a true piece of Americana! (We tried to blur our cyclist's tan lines and work a completely different muscle group by canoeing down the Housatonic River. —Clif)

It was a fabulous weekend. Not only was it a chance to get away, it was also a time spent with friends in a beautiful environment, with plenty of sunshine, good food, and great cycling. Come join us next year.
No Tech Tips: Tasty Leftovers
by Bob Moulder

When this column first appeared in the Bulletin a few months ago, and in several columns since, readers were invited to share their own tips with the rest of us. It was hoped there would be a larger number of contributors so I would be able to assemble a collection for the column, but there have been only a couple of good ideas brought to my attention, which appear below. The offer still stands, though, so if you have a tip pass it along to me for publication, with attribution. Contact me at monthly club meetings, on rides, or by telephone at (212) 682-5669.

POWER BALLS—A-Rider extraordinaire Tom Lowenthal, who may well have the highest rate of metabolism in the NYCC, like many of us appreciates the sustained glycogen high provided by Power Bars, and thought of a good way to make them more convenient to ingest at 25 MPH. Tom cuts the bars into five or six pieces, molds them into small bite sized globes and carries them in a Zip-lok bag in a jersey pocket. The round shape reduces the surface contact area between the pieces, so they don’t stick together as rectangular shapes would.

ELECTRIC COWBOY—A master electrician by trade, long-distance rider Karl Dittebrandt uses a familiar tool of the trade, electric tape, to make a temporary tube patch. As luck would have it, just as Karl was describing the idea to me I had a flat and was able to try it out on the spot. Following Karl’s instructions, I let the air out of the tube and wrapped about eight inches of tape around the tube in spiral fashion in the area of the hole, reinstalled the tube and inflated it. My tire retained rideable air pressure for several hours, and pumping the tires back up provided several more hours of adequate riding pressure. Patch it later, though.

STUCK ON YOU—The irksome and potentially expensive problem of derailer hi-low limit screws loosening (a chain jumping past the big cog on the rear can destroy a wheel) can be solved by removing the problem screw, putting a SMALL amount of tubular tire glue on the threads, and reinstalling and adjusting to the proper setting. You can also use Loctite, formulated specifically for the problem, which can be removed with a solvent.

PUMP ME UP—If you’re trying to lighten your load on long group rides (having already lost excess body weight, of course), you can ditch your pump if you rely on CO2 cartridges for flat repairs. These really do work, but if you’re riding alone be sure to carry two or three. On group rides where I’m fairly sure I won’t get dropped, I sometimes carry only one because usually everyone on the ride has a pump they’re willing to lend. Just two warnings, though: 1) make sure you’ve got that tube tucked in really well before you gas it up, and 2) let’s don’t all do this on the same ride.

THE TELLTALE WOBBLE—Just as an inebriated motorist cannot walk a straight line, a fatigued or momentarily exhausted cyclist cannot ride a straight line. For this very reason, most accidents occur near the end of long rides when riders lose their ability to concentrate on the delicate task of maintaining their positions in a group; wheels touch, someone is hooked, and a serious case of road rash, or worse, is the result. Momentary exhaustion, which occurs when ascending a short hill or chasing to catch a group, poses no serious problem because recovery is quick. But when a fatigued cyclist chronically weaves and his/her head sags, the danger to all is imminent. Stop to assess the situation, and consider making arrangements for a ride home. Besides, riding a bike while feeling totally zonked is no fun, so why go on? To paraphrase Churchill, “There are a few things up with which we should not put.”

ON THE OTHER HAND—Cleaning the yuk off your hands after working on a bicycle drivetrain frequently takes longer than the job took—the grease sometimes lingers in cuticles and under fingernails for days when you clean up with bath soap or detergents. Next time, use what professional auto mechanics use, an industrial-strength lanolin concoction called “GoJo” which is available at auto parts stores. If this isn’t good enough for you try “Simple Green”, an all-purpose degreaser which can also be used to clean grease from clothing and furniture and anything else you splatter it on. “Simple Green” is available at hardware, auto parts, and a whole variety of other stores.

IF I HAD A HAMMER—Okay, now is the time for all good riders to start using their big chainrings. The weather’s warm, our ligaments are loose, so let’s step on it. Raise your top-end speed and high-gear hammering potential by doing big-gear intervals at least once a week. An acquaintance of mine who was once under the tutelage of top coach Eddie Borsigwicz passed along this bit of wisdom: “If you want to get used to pushing big gears, you have to practice pushing big gears.” For detailed advice on how to include intervals in your training, get Eddie B’s book on bicycle racing. For a tiny taste of the results of interval training, the next time you ride in Central Park try this: while on the long flat stretch on the east side of the park, get into a 52x14 gear and push as hard as you can for 30 to 45 seconds, trying to go anaerobic, then shift to a 52x17 as you recover from the effort. Gee...52x17 feels easy! Get the picture? Hint: one way to make sure you go anaerobic is to pick a target speed, say 32 MPH, then try to reach it and hold it for a few seconds. If you reach 32 MPH easily, set your target higher. Cut back a bit if your knees start bothering you.

NEXT MONTH: Tachs, bikes and videotape.
Ultra-Marathon Rambling
by Holly D. Gruskay with a little help from Jeff Vogel

While 24-hour days are common to all, bike rides that length are not. On June 2, 10 NYCC riders set out to ride as many miles as possible within the 31.7-mile loop surrounding Johnstown's Sacandaga Lake within a 24-hour period. The NYCC field included several veteran ultra-marathoners: Marty Wolf, Art Crowley, Karl Dittebrand, Tom Lowenthal, Jim Rosar, Alex Bekkerman and Jim Greene. This race was also a proving ground for three new faces: John Becker, Karin Fantus and (1990 SIG rider) Margaret "Animal" Cipolla. Also on hand were: John Ceceri (Asst. Race Director, recently married and relocated to Johnstown), Bill White and Don Kettler (respectively crewing for Jim Greene and Alex), and Jeff Vogel and I (crewing for six).

The race got off to a rough start when Alex realized he left his lights and batteries on his kitchen table. Fortunately other crew had spares. NYCC riders were also lucky Jeff had filled his trunk with chocolate UltraEnergy (dubbed "Yooey") as this proved to be the drink that saved the day, the night, and the next day too. Our riders began the race with Gatorade, Exceed and BodyFuel, but all switched to Yooey by nightfall. Another plus was special attention from race mechanic John Ceceri. If there was a problem with a bike, John was there to fix it.

Club spirit ran high, even as crews circled wagons (Porsches, Toyotas and Hondas) to cope with one crazed homeowner who screamed at us to get off his property "it's not much, but it's all I've got" he yelled. Bill White and his barbecue-ing chicken were the only ones truly inconvenienced by the move. As the night wore on, riders' muscles tired and Tom, John Becker and Karin had their bodies worked on by a masseuse. Karin has yet to reveal how she negotiated a one-hour massage for $10.

In the dark, Jeff realized that crewing was actually tougher than riding, due to the organization, mothering and dirty waterbottle cleaning involved. Jeff will no doubt appreciate his crew more in the future, but first he'll have to live down his neglect of his wife Margaret on her first lap. NYCC support came from the road as well. When Alex flatted for the second time, Jim Greene swapped wheels, enabling Alex to go for the win. This neat trick allowed Alex to set a course record, and earned Jim designation as a "rider's rider" by Race Director Jack Papa.

During the race, things were hectic. Dinner for eight is much easier than crewing for six, as each rider had specific menu demands and solid food/energy drink/water ratios. With clipboards and ice-cold washcloths in hand and coolers at our feet, Jeff and I served six different menus every lap. Our riders were appreciative and re-sponded well to constant pleas to increase calorie consumption. (No one even complained about the round of Yooey I prepped for lap 5, mixed with CarboFuel instead of water.) Throughout the race, the crew commented on NYCC's overall good performance, but we didn't realize how well our club was doing until Jeff returned with the local Sunday paper featuring Jim Rosar on page one. Fortunately, the photographer caught Rosar with NYCC jersey on, and in an up-right position on his Cannondale. Tom Lowenthal took an extra day to relax with the Ceceris in Johnstown, and picked up the paper's Monday edition featuring Alex on the front.

On to the finish: Karin Fantus, Tom Lowenthal and Margaret Cipolla all completed their doubles, and like the rest of the NYCC field received commemorative plaques. As she took a break before completing her last lap, Margaret said that her 243-mile Sacandaga Lake ride was more appropriate for SIG graduation than Montauk. (Christy, Bob, Lisa, Lance and Alan take note!) Jim Rosar has surpassed completing 381 miles for 9th place overall. John Becker and Karl Dittebrand turned in a handsome 306 and 281 respectively. New to NYCC, Becker is the man to watch, as we've already seen what he can do on his 2 heavy bikes. Karl turned in another fine, steady performance, despite wheel trouble. Marty Wolf pedaled through 305, smiling and waving as much on her 8th lap as on her 1st. Art Crowley completed 363 miles, setting an unofficial club record for the most miles ridden on a day-old Kestral, and Jim Greene turned in 371 for 10th place overall (for the record, he does rumble after mile 300). This year, Alex took first place in this event, setting a new course record of 463.4 miles. He barely put his feet down during the race, giving his crew a good (running) workout as they traded bottles every lap.

After plague presentation, John Ceceri invited NYCC riders and crew back to his new Johnstown digs, serving champagne and pizza in celebration of Alex's win and a good NYCC showing overall. While timing Jim Rosar's shower, Alex commented that John's apartment resembled a cemetery, referring to the dead bodies littering the living room. As we mopped in wait of pizza, we learned the rumors about Don Kettler are true...he does snore.

Let the reader be advised that crewing is a giving experience with obvious benefits to the riders. The unexpected benefit flowing from riders to crew is an incredible amount of appreciation coupled with personal satisfaction for a job well done. (Sometimes crew is left with physical reminders of the experience, like Jeff's blackfly bug bites.) By crewing, people who would be unable to participate otherwise (due to injury, not enough base miles or whatever) play a key role. THE TOUR DE TRUMP:
A View from New York and the TV Set
by Richard Rosenthal

The Tour de Vanity has come and gone from Central Park and, with it, The Great Trump Hope that the creator of towering eyesores could apply his organizational skills and can-do spirit to level the swollen joints and fill in the cracks in the park roadway. The race moved on; the bumps and crevices remain.

The New York stage was so poorly organized and various permits so late in coming that two weeks before it, Mike Plant, the Tour de Trump race director said if it weren't for the fact that Trump, The Person lived in New York, he, Plant, would have pulled the plug on the New York stage.

Evan Moser, a coordinator for the company responsible for the New York stage, estimated there were 20,000 spectators along the 10.6 Mile Central Park circuit. Moser's estimate rivals one broadcast a few years ago by CoreStates USPro race promoter Dave Chauner for the all-time record for inflating attendance. Chauner said on CBS (in a curious double-role as on-air color commentator, an assignment that strained journalistic standards of objectivity in a way that rivals telecasts of World Wrestling) 300,000 people lined the course. Less biased observers put the number at 15,000-20,000. (The wonder is that sponsors come back year after year on the gauzy strength of such inflated attendance claims.)

John Tesh, one of the announcers for the Tour de Trump telecast, asserted in his peroration that "Big time professional bike racing is alive and well in America." It is? The NBC telecasts received National Nielsen Ratings of 5, 6, 6, and 6 for the four weekend days it was telecast--meaning that only 6% of all people actually watching TV during the time the Tour de Trump was on TV bothered to watch it. That compares with 10-11% watching PGA golf and 14-20% watching the NBA basketball playoffs.

The commentary by Tesh and, even more, by Phil Liggett was as obvious, as cliché-ridden, and as synthetic as the accompanying music by Tesh. It was also only marginally more informative and only slightly less intrusive.

It was apparently so difficult to fill the broadcast time that vast amounts of time on the two Sunday broadcasts were given to simply repeating the previous day's video and audio. One would have thought if there were so little in the actual racing with which to fill the allotted time, the producers might have turned to something extreme like an interview with a rider or coach or manager or soigneur. There were none excepting cursory, 10-second sound bites with Bobrick and Alcala. Penetrating? Searching? Informative? No, no, no.

Among the more memorable clichés and banalities were these: "It was time now to ride like the wind." (Liggett) And, "The leading riders do what they know how to do best: ride a bike." (Liggett again.)

God, the training these commentators must subject themselves to be able to spew forth banality upon banality, unalloyed by any real content. But how do we train ourselves to endure this stuff?

NEW YORK CYCLE CLUB BOARD MEETING
(Tuesday, May 8, 1990)

Present: Debbie Bell, Arlene Ellner, Bob Foss, Dick Goldberg, Christy Guzzetta, Clif Kranish, Richard Rosenthal, Simone Smith, Jeff Vogel, Alex Von Braun

Absent: Carlos Cardona, Beth Herman, Hannah Holland

The minutes of the April board meeting were approved.

The Department of Parks is receiving complaints from motorists about the new bicycle lane on the lower loop of Central Park. It is causing a bottleneck at the seventh avenue exit. Cyclists should counteract the impact of the motorist's complaints with a letter writing campaign of their own explaining the benefits.

Irv Weisman will coordinate the newcomers ride on June 17.

Because rides may be cancelled due to rain at the starting time only to have the sun come out an hour later, ride coordinators may suggest that ride leaders post two starting times, for example 8:30 or 10 a.m.

The board reviewed and voted to get Dick's survey to the members expeditiously.

Bethpage was selected as the destination for the July 22 all-class club ride.

The Club's insurance bill was paid.

The Chequita Inn was sold. Debbie is looking into Labor Day arrangements. Expect higher prices.

The meeting adjourned at 8:08 PM.

A debunking talk by John Schubert

If you think frames of the same general geometry differ in stiffness, steering, responsiveness, etc., you're in for a surprise.

No one is better informed about the bike industry than John Schubert, former editor of BICYCLING and BICYCLE GUIDE, and now a consultant to Specialized, Bell, Descente, et al.

John will autograph for you his book Cycling for Fitness which we can buy at the meeting for more than 40% off at $5.25. (It's a terrific book, far better than its pedestrian title.)

Also at the July meeting: Everyone who completed the SIG Progressive "A" Ride Series is requested to attend.
